YMCA of Greater Houston – learn how this amazing non-profit organization provided relief for families and children in the Greater Houston communities that were impacted by Hurricane Harvey, as well as their positive impact on communities every day.

Join the Energy Express Network on Wednesday, June 13th, for networking followed by dinner and a presentation by special guest, Marie Arcos, Executive Director of Community Development for the YMCA of Greater Houston. In this presentation, Marie will share what makes the YMCA of Greater Houston so great and how the YMCA helped provide relief for so many Hurricane Harvey victims here in the Greater Houston, as well as overall impact on communities day-to-day.

Marie Arcos is the Executive Director of Community Development for the YMCA of Greater Houston. Her responsibilities include partnerships and collaborations, advocacy, and social responsibility. She also served as the Executive Director of the M. D. Anderson Family for 16 years and served on their board prior to employment for 6 years. She was born and reared in Houston's Northside and remains very active in the community at large. Marie received her Masters of Social Work, specializing in political and community organizing, from the University of Houston Graduate College Of Social Work. Her undergraduate studies included Human Development and Family Studies.

Marie is committed to ensuring equity in education for children and health access for families and the aging population through volunteer contributions to our community by currently serving on several local boards. In her spare time, Marie enjoys travel, yoga, festivals and exploring undiscovered areas of Houston.
